2. Communications staff will write a statement for the media as soon as possible and forward it by phone, or email to the local K-State Research and Extension office or another designated location. At the same time, they will release the statement from Manhattan, using standard media distribution channels. After that, communications staff will provide updates in the same manner, as soon as additional information becomes available.

IN THE EVENT OF AN EMERGENCY OR CRISIS ...

1. Have insurance information available for hospital or other emergency personnel.
2. Release children and their luggage, if available, only to parents or guardians listed on the “in case of emergency” contact form.
3. Get name of investigating officer(s) and appropriate contact information.

BEFORE YOU LEAVE FOR AN ACTIVITY OR EVENT ...

1. Do you have the completed crisis form with you?
2. Do you have signed and completed health forms for all participants?
Have you reviewed the health forms for any special conditions or other pertinent information?
3. Make sure you and your office have “in case of emergency” contact information for parents or guardians of all participants.
Make sure parents or guardians understand that only those persons listed on the form will be allowed to pick up the children in case of an accident.
4. Have you sent in any required pretrip forms to your insurance company?
5. Do you have all of the following:
 - cellphone?
 - first aid kit?
 - surgical gloves?
 - insurance information from your local office?

PACKING TO LEAVE FOR AN ACTIVITY OR EVENT ...

1. Pack large suitcases securely under the bus or in another vehicle.
2. Make sure passengers know evacuation plans or appropriate emergency procedures.

POST-CRISIS RECOVERY ...

1. Return any necessary post-trip insurance forms required by the insurance company (applies to noncrisis events as well).
2. Make sure the victims and their families understand exactly what happened.
3. Know where victim's belongings are and when and if they will be returned.
4. Schedule sessions to deal with talking about the event.
5. Take advantage of county and state resources for counseling, both for individuals and for the group—immediately.
Families need to be told what to expect. Continued communication with the families is important.
6. Be prepared for insurance claim form questions.
7. Know when and where the event will be rescheduled if applicable.
