Many people don't give Medicare a second thought until they approach 65 and find themselves in the middle of a big decision about their future. It's important to understand requirements, eligibility and benefits when considering your future health care coverage.

Demystify the world of Medicare at an informational session with a local expert. Those turning 65 in the next six months or over 65 and thinking about retirement are encouraged to attend, although all ages are welcome, especially those who help aging parents with insurance and financial matters.

Presenter

Debra Wood, CFP®, M.S. in personal financial planning, Central Kansas Extension District family resource management educator, and Senior Health Insurance Counseling for Kansas (SHICK) certified counselor.

What you'll learn

- Medicare eligibility
- Medicare benefits for parts A, B, C, D
- Medicare and Social Security
- Medicare enrollment process/timeline
- Information for those 65-plus and still working
- Coordinating benefits for Medicare and employer/retiree insurance
- Comparing Medicare Part D
- Medicare supplements also known as Medigap policies
- Programs available to assist low-income individuals
