Saline County Women in Ag

Thursday, April 16
American Ag Credit
925 W. Magnolia, Salina, KS
Registration 6:00 p.m.
Meeting begins at 6:30 p.m.

Farm Service Agency (FSA), National Resource Conservation Service (NRCS), and Crop Insurance Fundamentals

What does this all mean?

Come learn about what FSA and NRCS has to offer. We will explain some of the most used programs available to your operation. Plus there will be a presentation on the essentials of crop insurance. There will be a Q and A at the end.

Presenters:
FSA: Amanda Ahrens, Saline County Executive Director, and Kevin W. Vondra, Farm Loan Manager
NRCS: Kristin Kuntz, District Conservationist
K-State Research and Extension: Jay Wisbey, Crop Production Agent

If you are a woman involved in agriculture or are simply interested in learning more about these topics, please plan to attend this meeting!

Pre-registration requested:

Call the K-State Research and Extension Office in Salina at 785-309-5850 by April 13.

Sponsored by: American Ag Credit, Farm Service Agency, K-State Research and Extension, Natural Resources Conservation Service, Saline County Conservation District, Saline County Farm Bureau
